

Satellite Radio is a benefit to every user as well as the economy. It provides beneficial information while at the same time stays free of public service announcements and commercials, which the majority of the population can do without. Stock prices for XM satellite radio have boomed in the last year. I only wish I had bought stock when the company was first introduced. My vote is to protect XM under its 1st amendment rights and expand XM radio features in any way possible.

-Ali Saeed

Avid XM owner and user